YOUR NAME:

Rob Porter

YOUR DEPARTMENT:

German

THE POSITION YOU ARE APPLYING FOR:

PGA Publicity Officer

YOUR PHOTO:YOUR 100 WORD SUMMARY:

Calling all UCL postgrads: Meet your ideal choice for PGA publicity officer! Committed, hardworking and dedicated, I'm a mature MA student with a wealth of professional marketing, journalistic and copywriting experience. I worked in media full time for the past 4 years, producing and publicising commercial events for a major publishing company and will employ the broad range of skills I've acquired to ensure the interests of postgraduates are represented throughout the university. If you share my vision for a coherent, lively postgraduate community, then cast your vote for Rob Porter!

YOUR MANIFESTO:Rob stands for:

- IMPROVED COMMUNICATION
I'll work tirelessly to ensure that all relevant information is conveyed to those who need it. Websites will be updated & written communication will be accurate and informative.
- STRONGER REPRESENTATION
The postgraduate body needs dedicated champions of our views and concerns. I'm determined to make sure we're at the heart of all development at UCL.
- A LOT MORE INTEGRATION
With so many different backgrounds and interests, we postgrads are a diverse bunch. I'm passionate about improving social & pastoral links across all departments.
- ...FOR A FIRST RATE REPUTATION!
If you want UCL postgraduates to be famous for our strong sense of community, support and our ability to change things for the better, vote for Rob Porter.
