

CANDIDATE MANIFESTO

YOUR NAME:

Sam Conway

YOUR DEPARTMENT:

Medical School

THE POSITION YOU ARE APPLYING FOR:

RUMS Campaigns Officer

YOUR PHOTO:

YOUR 100 WORD SUMMARY:

I'm opinionated, I cycle and I dance like a drunken dad at a wedding, but somehow I'd still regard myself as a very sociable, approachable and lively person. I'm rather political and always up for a debate on any random subject, and it's this ability to be heard which makes me suited to this position. If you don't know me already, then just say hi. It's much better than 100 words here.

YOUR MANIFESTO:

Quite simple really... ensure the campaign to retain the Huntley St. facilities and RUMS sports teams is maintained and successful, and to work with the RUMS executive, RUMS members and indeed UCLU to ensure that issues which affect Medical Students are addressed properly. I also aim to make sure that RUMS is able to retain its own separate identity, and promote RUMS as an organisation much more.

If anyone has any more ideas, then let me know!
