YOUR MANIFESTO:

As Arts and Humanities Faculty Representative I promise to:

- Promote democracy and fairness in our Union
- Put education and the needs of our students back on the agenda
- Fight against the bureaucracy and political divisions that plague our Union
- Work alongside the College to ensure that needs of UCL students are being met
- To represent the needs and concerns of Arts and Humanities students on Student Council

About Me:

- I am currently the Students of Faith Welfare Officer and President of the Students of Faith Network
- I sit on the Union Services Committee
- I was formerly President of the Jewish Society and Vice President of the Interfaith Society
- I have served our Union and UCL students before at NUS and on Governance Committee
