

Hey! If you didn't know, the Union has reopened elections for some of the positions that weren't filled last time. So I've decided to stand for one of the five UCL Union Elections Committee positions!!!

As you may or may not know, I'm Chris; I study Law with French Law and I live in Ramsay Hall!
Yes... I'm a fresher!

But, I'm a fresher who gets involved! From freshers fortnight, to playing law society rugby to Hockey for UCL. From mooting to writing for Silk V. Brief Law magazine – I'm proud to be part of UCL!

Why you should elect me:

- I'm hardworking and dedicated
- I'm always up for having a laugh and so that means I'm approachable at any time – day or night!
- I was Head of House at school and so have had organisational experience and also experience in communicating the views of the students!
- I may be fresh-faced, but my enthusiastic edge makes up for that!

I'm always around if anyone needs me and I am definitely willing to hear suggestions/ideas/point of view!

If your going to do a job, you may as well do it properly....If your going to elect a representative, you may as well elect a good one!

Voting is online at UCLU.org from FRIDAY 27TH FEB @ 10AM until THURDAY 5TH MARCH @ 12MIDNIGHT - It takes 2 mins and every vote would be appreciated! If you think I'm the right man for the job...DO IT NOW! ;)

VOTE TODAY FOR CHRIS!
